Baptist Mission

"A ministry with the world in its view and the church in its heart."

Dear Praying Friends,

Advanced Missionary and Chaplain Training (AMCT) this year grew over previous years as you can see from the photo. Honestly, we are maxed out as far as space is concerned. We have discussed the possibility of using portable classrooms for next year. Not pictured are the instructors, or the pastors that attended Tuesday. That day we fed about 240 people. It was a wonderful week with the highlight each day being the chapel service. The preaching was powerful and many good decisions were made. It always amazes me how great people who are sold out to the Great Commission still find things to respond to as the Holy Spirit works in hearts. Praise the Lord for His goodness. You are so much a part of making this happen with your prayers and financial support. With all of my heart I believe we are making a difference.

Massillon Baptist College. I am to have twelve freshmen students this semester and I am praying that the Lord will allow me to impact them for the cause of world missions. Would you please bring these students and me before the Lord?

My fall calendar is pretty full with a couple missions conferences and some pulpit fills. I am gone from our home church most Sundays representing APBM one way or another. If I am not scheduled to preach, Barb and I will do a "drop in" visit, sometimes to a supporting church, other times to an Independent Baptist church that we do not know. In both of these cases I am usually given a few minutes to speak from the pulpit. The number of churches that support APBM missionaries continues to grow.
