

Melvyn L. Brown

A Missionary in His service 'til He comes

July 30, 2018

Dear Praying Friends,

Only a few more days, August 14th, and we will be boarding for our journey to the Philippines. We start in Birmingham, then to Dallas, transfer to Korean Air for Seoul, Korea and then on to Manila, Philippines. Talk about being “dog tired”, you can’t imagine. It takes me about 7 to 10 days to get over jet lag and get my body turned around and going in the right direction.

I will be relieving Christopher & Ivy Hurst while they are taking a four month furlough. On August 23 and 24 we will fly down to General Santos City in the most Southern part of Mindanao to hold a Pastor’s Conference for BIMI Missionary Doug Sesson. Dr. Sesson is expecting around 400 Filipino Pastors to attend this two day conference. I will be preaching five times in those two days. What an open door and opportunity!

I will be taking other invitations to speak all over the Philippines when I am not preaching at Pastor Hurst church, Metroview Baptist Church in Antipolo City, on Sundays and Thursdays as the Lord gives me strength.

You may ask, “What can I/we do for you?” Please, please pray for Jon (my caregiver) and me that God will give us good and safe flights. pray for our safety and health, pray for the power of God to be on me as I preach to those who attend these meetings, pray that the unsaved will be saved by the grace of God and pray that Christians will get revived and serve God. Just pray!

We will be returning home January 15th., the Lord willing. Thank you for your faithful prayers and financial support. You are a blessing to us as we reach the lost for Christ.

In His service until He comes,

Mel Brown
